A Makeshift Bankruptcy Bill The New York World has no word of approval of the Fexas make-shift for a ankruptdy bill passed by the House after defeating the carefully prepared legrelation that has been pending for years, with the endorsement of the business men all over the country except in some portions of the South and West. Of the Halley bill the Warld says portions of the South and West. Of the saley bill the World says

The Balley Bankruptey bill was passed by the House yesterday.

So far us it goes it is a good enough bill, but why it does not go further must be a pazzle to all minds not of the Congressional order. In the first place it provides for its own death at the end of two years. Why? Effice we need a national bankrupt haw or we do not if we need one, as all men of business agreethat we do, we need it not for two years, but all the time. Congress should pass a permurent measure on the subject or at should pass cone at all. If after two years or any other period it shall be found that his law works more ill than good it can be altered or repealed. There is no conceivable reason why such a measure should be sail-limited. It is a thing at once scheeless and mischlevous. Secondly, this bill provides; only for voluntary bankrupteles. These are far less impertant from the point of view of law than the involuntary kind. The necessare fixes the terms of which an houset debtor may rie himself of his obligations by surrendering his property. In almost every case the houset debtor without any law at all. The bill makes no provision by which the creditors of a dishonest debtor may force him to disgorre. Yet that is the chief object of all bankrupt laws.

A really good, well-considered and well-night universally approved bankruptey bill has been lattroduced at every session of Congress for years pass. Why should not the Soute is abstitute that for this meager undeshift?

First Political Gathering in New City Hall on Thursday Evening.

Republicans Nominate Candidates for Representatives to Leg-

H. N. Fairbanks, C. W. Coffin and F. H. Parkhurst the Nominees

The Republican voters of the city as obliged by rush of matter to give it The embled at the new City Hall last even ing for the purpose of nominating candidates for Representatives to the Legis lature, it being the first political meeting ln that building It was a very warm evening but that did not seem to matter as there was a shown when in the 3th the home talent large attendance, indicating the Interest of the voters in the occasion as well as in the general political situation The best of feeling prevailed throughout the justed us 7 runs. Then how the

by C S Pearl, Esq., chairman of the toys were way up in gee thinking the Republican City Committee who aus game was ours right there. Old Relia piclously referred to the purpose of the gathering and the general satisfaction was getting thred and the distors were that was felt at holding the meeting in such surroundings as the half afforded He then read the call after which he chairman of the caucus warm applause in taking the chair thanked the as embirge for the great honor conferred upon him and expressed his personal aratification at heine the first to preside over a political meeting and boothe scattered about beneath the in the new City Hall. He was gird to everyone but the Portlands see so large a crucus and deemed it a good sign

There were various tables and booths He considered the weakest point in politics was the neglect of the caucus. He said that he need not refer to the fin portance of the meeting as all were ware that they were there to nominate those who would not only represent the city but who would survey the entire field and make just laws In closing he hoped that when the vote was taken a Miss Wing, assisted by Miss Gliman, majority would be rolled up that would cheer their friends everywhere

Chairman Collamores speech was heartily applauded The organization was completed by the choice of Charles I Getchell I q an secretary James Adams, I su arose and said that it had been the usual custom to give our Representatives a second term In con formity with that gustom it gave him on he rounds this year (age) made pleasure to present the name of Henry N Fairbanks Mr Adams referred to Cupt I sirbanks as energetic faithful out thits. I ong had a difficult game to did ycoman service and spiked the err my s principal gun the bill passing the House 76 to 48 He was an able and successful businces man and in these Democratic and Populist times such men are needed. He moved that the nomina tion be made by acclamation The motion was seconded by M G

Trask Eso II.D Williams, I'sq said that many named for Alfred the Great, and the had expressed a desire to cast bullots and he moved that the numberion be de otable eltizens have been Hon John termined by ballot

o 1833, Hon Daniel Goodenow, a judge and Capt Fairbanks was the nominee of the supreme court of Maine from 1855 to 1862, Hon Nathan D Appleton atthe nomination of C W Coffin Psq be torney general of Maine from 1857 to made by acclamation It was a vote and Mr Coffin was declared another nominee Dr D A Robinson said that the pext representative in Congress in 1843 Legislature would be an important one Hon Nathan Dane, state treasurer in for the city and State and one of the nost important measures will be that of Another town is Drasden, Hacola the insane hospital. He felt that the State had been almost criminally negligent regarding that matter. While h did not think any lastructions were nec essary still he believed that the cilla ne of Gen. Waldo It was once the shire should give some expression of their town of the county, and its old cours views and should begin on that duty at He should be ashumed to have it advocated as a Bungor scheme for Bungor does not go down on her knos to as y and said that a hospital was needed A ommission, of which he was a member was appointed and ordered to find a loca tion at or near Bangor. He believed that Bunger would be as much for the bos pital were its location Roulton or Cape

The hospital has already been on larged beyond its capacity and that it is poorly ventilated and provided is shown by the diseases among the patients it is not humane or decent that these patients should be taken to the State Prison Hard times is given as the excuse but it will not always be hard times and the Democratic party is not always going to play ducks and rakes with the industries of the land

We want men who can go before the Legislature and put the matter as it hould be He nominated Gen H L Mitchell as a good Republican and successful advocate of law which had saved the city much money, as a builder up of the State militia, while he was also veteran of the war and as one carnes what he undertakes

J A Boardman. Esq said he would pright and square in his dealings, who as ability, who has the interest of the city at heart and who if elected would well represent the interest of the city li the Legislature

The nomination was seconded by Councilman George I Westott, who spoke especially of Mr Parkhurst's ex The following committee was ap
